OSUN LOCAL ECONOMY CONFERENCE (OLEC)

Building a Local-to-Global Economic Movement for Osun State

PARTNERSHIP & SPONSORSHIP PROPOSAL

Osun Local Economy Conference

SUMMARY STATEMENT

The Osun Local Economy Conference (OLEC) is an annual, impact-driven platform focused on catalyzing economic transformation in Osun State by connecting the people, ideas, resources, and institutions needed to strengthen the local economy.

OLEC brings together young professionals, entrepreneurs, business owners, innovators, students, investors, policymakers, government stakeholders, and Osun professionals in the diaspora to engage in meaningful conversations, build strategic relationships, exchange knowledge, and develop practical solutions to some of the economic challenges facing the state.

The conference is positioned to address critical issues including limited business collaboration, weak professional and investment networks, talent migration, limited access to opportunities, and the need to strengthen locally driven economic activity.

ABOUT OSUN LOCAL ECONOMY CONFERENCE

The Osun Local Economy Conference focuses on one core mission: to help Osun businesses and talents grow from local to global while building an entrepreneurial ecosystem that creates jobs, fosters innovation, and strengthens the state's economy.

The Vision

To build a thriving, self-sustaining local economy in Osun State by empowering youths, entrepreneurs, and professionals to create value-driven businesses and opportunities that can scale globally, reducing dependency on federal allocation and transforming Osun into a hub of innovation and economic growth.

The Mission

To promote local entrepreneurship and empower SMEs with skills, tools, and networks
To bridge the collaboration gap between businesses, professionals, government, and investors
To activate a local-to-global mindset within the Osun youth population
